Slain by Former Cashier, Who Is Seriously Wounded.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Feb. 8.—J. H. Martin, president of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank, was killed and J. A. Webb, former cashier of the bank, was seriously but not fatally wounded in a duel fought in Webb's store here yesterday.

It is said business difficulties beginning at about the time Webb left the bank were responsible for the shooting.

DON'T HURT A BIT

Lift your old, torturous corns and calluses right off with the fingers.

This tiny bottle holds the wonder of wonders. It contains an almost magical drug discovered by a Cincinnati man. It is called frezone. It is a compound made from ether.

Apply a few drops of this frezone upon a tender, aching corn or a hardened callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you just lift it off with the fingers.

You feel no pain or soreness when applying frezone, one or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin.

Just ask in any drug store for a small bottle of frezone. This will cost but a few cents but will positively rid your poor, suffering feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, or the tough calluses on bottom of feet. Genuine frezone has a yellow label. Look for yellow label.—Adv.

CONFESS PERJURY IN LABOR FIGHT, UPHOLDING SWANN

Two Admit False Testimony in Cases of Twenty-Eight Union Leaders.

Two of the men, members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers of the World, whose testimony before the Grand Jury in March resulted in the indictment and arrest of twenty-eight members of a rival union, the International Garment Workers, for murder, assault, robbery, extortion and other crimes, confessed before Judge McIntyre in General Sessions to-day that the testimony they had given was false.

It was because of the discharge from custody of these twenty-eight men by Judge Crain last June, on the recommendation of District Attorney Swann, that the City Club filed charges with Gov. Whitman recently against the District Attorney, based on memoranda made by former Judge James A. Delehanty.

In support of District Attorney Swann's contention in his answer to the charges that the twenty-eight labor leaders had been indicted on false testimony, the Grand Jury on Wednesday returned three indictments charging subornation of perjury against Max Sulkes, former head of the International Garment Workers of the World, and indictments for perjury against Barnett Engel of No. 250 East Third Street, President of the Sulkes organization; William Levine of No. 17 Cannon Street, and David Manuevits of No. 522 Grand Street.

When arraigned to-day before Judge McIntyre to plead to the indictment, Engel and Levine, through their attorney, Nathan Zvirin of No. 140 Livingston Street, pleaded guilty. Under oath they made statements that Sulkes, early in 1914, had brought them to the office of Assistant District Attorney Lucian S. Breckinridge and there had told them in order to stop the fight between the old union and the new union it would be necessary to send Max Sulkes and Harry Goldberg, business agents of the old union, to prison.

Both Engel and Levine admitted to Judge McIntyre, in reply to questions propounded by Assistant District Attorney Markewich and Eder, that Sulkes had told them what they should testify to in order to have the officers of the old union indicted. Levine said he had brought to the Grand Jury an old chisel which he had at home as an exhibit of the weapon he swore the old union officials had used in assaulting members of the new union.

Engel in his statement to Judge McIntyre placed all the blame for his perjury upon the shoulders of Sulkes. He said Sulkes had made him President of the union and had forced him to go before the Grand Jury and testify falsely against the leaders of the old union.

Both men were remanded to the Tombs indefinitely by Judge McIntyre. They undoubtedly will be used as witnesses by the District Attorney in the hearing before former Presiding Justice George L. Ingraham, appointed by Gov. Whitman to hear the City Club charges.

FOOD PRICES GO UP JUST AS CONSUMER EXPECTED A CUT

"Speculators Stuck, But Still Holding Onto Supplies," Say the Experts.

Don't look for any "come down" on the cost of living. This is the advice handed out this morning by the food experts. It's not coming. It's going the other way.

There has been a 4 per cent. wholesale increase in the cost of necessities during the last two or three weeks, according to Dun's latest figures. This means from 10 to 15 per cent. to the consumer—in spite of the fact that warehouses are still packed with meats, lard, butter, potatoes, etc.

The speculators are stuck. But they are still holding on to the foodstuffs in the hope that they may be able to sell it by the ton to the warring nations.

Now there is a pretty fight on between the milk companies. The Sheffield Farms concern, in announcing increased rates to take effect next Monday, went the Borden people one better by announcing loose milk in 127 stores at 8 cents the quart. The Borden price for the same milk, according to information given to the Evening World by an official, is 9 cents. Take your choice. Commissioner Dillon, of the Food and Markets Department, says both companies are charging excessive prices for all kinds of milk—and particularly for loose milk.

"They're making a profit of 33-1/4 cents on the loose milk," said the Commissioner. "It's the old story. There is no excuse for it. The mere fact that there is no change in the high grade, used principally by infants, does not help their case any. Grade A is still very high. But there is no excuse for the jumping of the other grades. Loose milk is delivered to Sheffield Farm stores at the flat rate of 6 cents a quart. Figure the profit for yourself. There is no charge for delivery out of this 8 cents a quart charge to the consumer. The consumer must go to the store to get loose milk."

Sheffield Farms, beginning Monday, will bring their grade B up to the same made by the Borden people two weeks ago. On and after Monday grade B will be 11 cents by the quart bottle instead of 10 cents. Condensed milk goes up, too, also cream. Condensed milk is now 9 cents a half pint. It will be 10 cents the half pint next Monday. As for cream—well, if you buy it by the quart, you will have to pay 4 cents more than you do today. Figure out for yourself what cream costs by the spoonful at the present rate of 16 cents the half pint."

WORSE THAN THE U BOAT Strikes Silently and Swiftly

Now that the foreign situation is holding the boards and the eyes of the country drawn seaward, folks are liable to overlook the dangers that threaten their welfare at home.

It might be well to remind everyone that this is Grippe and Pneumonia weather and that thousands of lives have been lost this winter due to the unusual activity of these dreaded diseases. The following suggestion is a good one.

At the first warning of attack, which is usually the stubborn cough or cold on the chest that nothing seems to help, procure from your druggist the celebrated Johann Hoff's Malt Extract and take a liberal portion, preferably before retiring, heated to the steaming point and sweetened with sugar. For this purpose Hoff's "Plain" Malt should be used instead of Hoff's Malt "with Iron."—Adv.

Sheffield Farms Offer Milk at 8c a Quart From 127 Sheffield Stores

BABIES AND CHILDREN should have pure, safe milk and lots of it. The cost should be as low as possible.

Increase of costs to us seemed to make an increase in the price of Sheffield "Sealect" brand (Grade-A) Milk inevitable. There seemed to be no business way to avoid it.

But when we classified the homes where Sheffield super-quality "Sealect" milk is consumed we found that SIXTY (60%) PER CENT of it is consumed by children under three years of age and a great percentage of these in the poorer districts.

The above facts prompt us to announce No Change in price for "Sealect" Brand Milk.

Absolutely Pure Safe Milk at 8c a Quart from 127 Stores

If you are one of the many thousands who are anxious to reduce the high cost of living you will be glad to know that you can purchase Sheffield Milk at 8c per Quart by bringing your own pitcher or pail to any of the Sheffield Stores listed below.
